

Beat Norwood-Kiwanis In Final, Score 5-4

Opportune Hitting Plays Big Part in Deciding First-Half Honors

Tonight's game—Dokey-Tigers vs. Columbus Club—6.30 p.m.

BATTERING the offerings of Bill Stobie freely, the Elks, last year's champions, hurdled their first obstacle to retain the Senior Ball league title by defeating Norwood-Kiwanis 5 to 4 in the third and deciding game for the initial half of the schedule Thursday evening at Wesley park.

With two men on the paths and two down in the last half of the seventh, George Rivers poled one between left and centre which the outfielders failed to see and cleared the paths, but at this stage the umpire called off hostilities and the game reverted back to the first part of the seventh.

Despite the threatening weather and the poor light, a fine crowd turned out for the fray and saw a contest that was interesting from start to finish. There was some good hitting and pitching intermingled with fine pitching.

Mounting the hillock for the second time within three days, Arnl Arnison turned back the Kiwanians once again. Arnl was only nicked for four safe bingles, two of which came in the opening round and, with the exception of the sixth when he developed a slight streak of wildness, was never in trouble.

Bill Stobie tried to stage a comeback after his defeat of Tuesday but was unsuccessful. Bill did not have his usual stuff on the ball and was hit freely in the six innings that he worked.

A double by Van Beneen to centre, Hopper's sacrifice fly and May's hit to third gave Norwood a single marker in the first. Elks evened it up in the second. After the first two men had been retired Arnison and Turk singled, while Joe Rivers scored the former with a double over the right field wall.

A triple by Turk to left, Joe Rivers' bingle to the same place, a fielder's choice, stolen base and Van Beneen's miscue on Cuthbert's smash put the antlered crew two runs to the good in the fourth.

Back came the Kiwanians to tie the score again in their half of the sixth. May walked and Keedian also strolled. May scored when Arnison threw wildly to third after picking-up Sutherland's smash. Keedian was retired at the plate when Buddick hit to short and then Sutherland displayed a daring piece of base running to pilfer home plate.

The antlered crew won the game in their half. After J. Rivers whiffed, McFarlane singled to third. George Rivers was also retired but Cuthbert scored McFarlane on a single to left and also came home when Romeo Rivers pushed one over the second sack into centre field.

Norwood got one in their last time at bat when Van Beneen laid down a dandy bunt along the third base line, stole second and was advanced right home as two batters were being retired at first.

Hill hurled the last half of the seventh and started by whiffing Arnison, but Turk put one over the right field wall. J. Rivers strolled and McFarlane struck out. Then George Rivers poled one out which the fielders failed to see and the game was called.

Alex Turk was to the fore with some tall clouting, cracking out a single, triple and double, while Joe Rivers, George Rivers and Keedian pulled off some fine fielding plays.

PRESBYTERIANS CAPTURE TROPHY

Score 5-1 Victory Over St. Andrew's in Church Soccer Final

Scoring three counters in the last ten minutes of the United Churches league title game last night, Presbyterians captured the McFayden Shield, emblematic of the championship of the College ground group by beating St. Andrews 5-1. Until almost the end of the game St. Andrews enjoyed a fair share of the play, and played a real game of football both on the attack and on the defence.

The turn of the tide came when St. Andrews defence apparently collapsed under the terrific strain launched against them by the dashing Presbyterians. Throughout the game it was evident that all the players were under a strain, and it was only a question of which side would break first.

Two goals fell to the winners in the first half. Paulley slammed a fast one past McLean, who had left his goal to save, and a few minutes later Stevens, the St. Andrews back, completely missed a bouncer in the goal mouth, and McLean had no chance to cover the misplay in time.

St. Andrews opened the second half in whirlwind fashion, and in less than ten minutes scored, when Archie Johnson got possession and slung it into the net with a snap shot.

From this time on the game developed into a real battle. The Presbyterians were struggling desperately to maintain their one-goal lead, and the St. Andrews squad were making superhuman efforts to get on even terms. The play swept up and down the field, and first one set of backs were clearing frantically and then the other. The real turning point in the game was the way in which the Presbyterian defence steadied themselves for the St. Andrews attacks. Davie and Hardie refused to get panicky, and therein lay their strength.

Realizing that only one goal would tie the score, the Presbyterian forwards took it upon themselves to make the shield "safe for Bill Petigrew," and opened a barrage on McLean's citadel. When the smoke had cleared away it was found that the ball had dented the St. Andrews twine three times and the game was won and lost.

Linnie was the first to score, and his line mate, Robertson, slammed in the other two. The latter player must be credited with being the star of the final game.

Steadiness on the line, and coolness on the defence won for the Presbyterians, and every member of the team played a fine game. St. Andrews had plenty of the play, their downfall being the cracking of their defence at the critical moment of the tussle.

Jimmy Duncanson handled the game and lined up the following teams:

Presbyterians—Scanlin, F. Davie and Hardie, W. Davie, McLean and Wallace, Robertson, Frew, Paulley, Linnie and McEwan.

St. Andrews—MacLean, Lennon and Stevens, Mason, Masson and Bell, Johnson, Morrice, Dale, Grant and Bonner.
