

CUAC and Sons Double Winners

CUAC blasted out a pair of Victories over Elmwood Giants in senior baseball sem-final action, Sunday. The Blues won 13-1 and 9-1.

John Zieban pitched a two-hitter in the opener as the Blues combed Gary Blaine for 15 hits. Ab Bruce with three, Zieban, Ed McDonald two hits and Albert Zekundiak with a triple did the damage. Ron Hewitt had both Elmwood Hits.

Aggie Kukulowicz was CUAC's winner in the afterpiece, scattering seven hits. Jack Bogden homered in the second for the Giants. Reg Chopp with three and McDonald with two led the attack on Bob Charman. Hewitt again had two hits for the Giants.

Pete Thomson was sensational afield for the winners.

St. Boniface Native Sons, after wrapping up their sixth straight pennant, sidelined Transcona, but not until the railroaders had extended the champs in a 12-inning thriller Sunday afternoon.

Johnny Warren's single in the bottom of the 12th scored Fred Dunsmore, who had walked and stolen second, with the winning run. Transcona had plated two runs in the first but were held scoreless thereafter as Sons got singles in the third and ninth.

Transcona veteran Cece Saunders went the distance for the losers, scattering eight hits. Ron Hogue struck out nine and walked four in nine frames for St. Boniface, with reliefer Pete Rettie earning the win.

Sons wound up the series with a 14-4 triumph Sunday night.

Ish Clendenan kept 13 Transcona hits well-scattered while his mates collected 11 blows off three 'Scona hurlers. Gord Simpson had three hits for Sons, while Don Collins had a double and two singles. Ken Little contributed a single and triple.

Frank Holiday had a double and triple for Transcona while Twerdocholib hit four-for-five.

The Sons and Blues will begin the best-of-seven league final Tuesday at 6.30 p.m. at Provencher park.

Furgol Wins

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Ed Furgol of St. Louis staged a spectacular comeback Sunday to win the $35,000 Milwaukee open golf tournament with a 15-under-par 265 for 72 holes.

Trailing Jackie Burke, masters of PGA champion from Kiamesha Lake, N.Y., by two strokes going into the final round, the lame-armed Furgol hammered out a methodical five-under-par 65.

Six birdies on the final 18 holes put the lid on Furgol's clutch round and earned him a first prize of $6,000 and a new red and white station wagon.

Burke, who led the pack with a 54-hole total of 19, wound up in third place with a 72 and a final score of 270.

Second place went to Gene Littler of Singing Hills, Calif., who fired a 66 Sunday, with a four-
