

Carman sweeps double header

Carman Goldeyes took a double header from Portage in Manitoba Junior Baseball League action Sunday. Goldeyes won the first game 5-0 and then triumphed in the second, 7-2. In other games Sunday, St. James Cardinals beat Transcona Mallards 4-2 while South End Sioux also won against Mallards, 6-2.

In Carman's opening game win, Terry Buhlin tossed a one-hitter while Brian Coates drove in two runs with two hits. In the second game, Goldeyes belted four Portage pitchers out of the box to register the win. Don McGorman hit a bases-loaded triple.

Cardinals were the first to beat Transcona as Dave Janzen threw a four-hitter. Gary Hanson drove in two runs for St. James. After Cardinals were through with Mallards Don Briscoe went to work on Transcona. He tossed a four-hitter, went nine innings and helped his own cause with four hits.
